- I. Prohibited Uses and Activities
- II. Customer Conduct and Features of the Service
- III. Violation of this Acceptable Use Policy

MTC’s goal is to provide its customers with the best Internet service possible. In order to help accomplish this, MTC has adopted this Acceptable Use Policy (the “Policy”). This policy is in addition to any restrictions contained in the Internet Service Agreement completed at the time of initial service.

All MTC High Speed Internet customers and all others who use the Service (the “customer,” “user,” “you,” or “your”) must comply with this Policy. Your failure to comply with this Policy could result in the suspension or termination of your Service account. If you do not agree to comply with this Policy, you must immediately stop all use of the Service and notify MTC so that we can close your account.

MTC may revise this Policy from time to time by posting a new version on the Web site at <https://www.mdtc.net/resources/regulatory/>. Revised versions of this Policy are effective immediately upon posting. Accordingly, customers of the Service should regularly visit the MTC Web site and review this Policy to ensure that their activities conform to the most recent version.

You may not configure the Service or any related equipment to access or use a static IP address or use any protocol other than DHCP unless you are subject to a Service Plan that expressly permits you to do so.

II. Customer Conduct and Features of the Service

What obligations do I have under this Policy?

In addition to being responsible for your own compliance with this Policy, you are also responsible for any use or misuse of the Service that violates this Policy, even if it was committed by a friend, family member, or guest with access to your Service account. Therefore, you must take steps to ensure that others do not use your account to gain unauthorized access to the Service. In all cases, you are solely responsible for the security of any device you choose to connect to the Service, including any data stored or shared on that device. MTC recommends against enabling file or printer sharing unless you do so in strict compliance with all security recommendations and features provided by MTC and the manufacturer of the applicable file or printer sharing devices. Any files or devices you choose to make available for shared access on a home LAN, for example, should be protected with a strong password or as otherwise appropriate.

It is also your responsibility to secure the Customer Equipment and any other Premises equipment or programs not provided by MTC that connect to the Service from external threats such as viruses, spam, bot nets, and other methods of intrusion.

How does MTC address inappropriate content and transmissions?

MTC reserves the right to refuse to transmit or post, and to remove or block, any information or materials, in whole or in part, that it, in its sole discretion, deems to be in violation of Sections I or II of this Policy, or otherwise harmful to MTC's network or customers using the Service, regardless of whether this material or its dissemination is unlawful so long as it violates the Policy. Neither MTC nor any of its affiliates, suppliers, or agents have any obligation to monitor transmissions or postings (including, but not limited to, email, file transfer, blog, newsgroup, and instant message transmissions as well as materials available on the Personal Web Pages and Online Storage features) made on the Service. However, MTC and its affiliates, suppliers, and agents have the right to monitor these transmissions and postings from time to time for violations of the Policy and to disclose, block, or remove them in accordance with this Policy, the Subscriber Agreement and applicable law.

What requirements apply to electronic mail?

The Service may not be used to communicate or distribute e-mail or other forms of communications in violation of Section I in this Policy.

MTC is not responsible for deleting or forwarding any e-mail sent to the wrong e-mail address(es) by you by someone else trying to send e-mail to you. MTC is also not responsible for forwarding e-mail sent to any account that has been suspended or terminated. This e-mail will be returned to the sender, ignored, deleted, or stored temporarily at MTC's sole discretion.

What requirements apply to instant, video, and audio messages?

Each user is responsible for the contents of his or her instant, video and audio messages and the consequences of any of these messages. MTC assumes no responsibility for the timeliness, mis-delivery, deletion or failure to store these messages.

III. Violation of this Acceptable Use Policy

MTC reserves the right immediately to suspend or terminate your Service account and terminate the Subscriber Agreement if you violate the terms of this Policy or the Subscriber Agreement.

MTC does not routinely monitor the activity of individual Service accounts for violations of this Policy. However, in the company's efforts to promote good citizenship within the Internet community, it will respond appropriately if it becomes aware of inappropriate use of the Service. MTC has no obligation to monitor the Service and/or the network. However, MTC and its suppliers reserve the right at any time to monitor bandwidth, usage, transmissions, and content in order to, among other things, operate the Service; identify violations of this Policy; and/or protect the network, the Service and MTC users.

The failure of MTC or its suppliers to enforce this Policy, for whatever reason, shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to do so at any time. You agree that if any portion of this Policy is held invalid or unenforceable, that portion will be construed consistent with applicable law as nearly as possible, and the remaining portions will remain in full force and effect.

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless MTC and its affiliates, suppliers, and agents against all claims and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) resulting from any violation of this Policy. Your indemnification will survive any termination of the Subscriber Agreement.
